

Guys & Dolls Activities

Learn Craps Dice games play an important role in Guys and Dolls. Purchase an inexpensive craps board and dice. Learn the game of craps and hold a mock tournament. Craps tutorial Your residents might also enjoy playing a free game of craps online.

Dulce de Leche Sky Masterson takes Sarah to Havana for a date. They order a drink called Dulce de leche. Learn the history behind the drink. Create the alcoholic or non-alcoholic version for your residents.

Save a Life Mission Sarah believes in helping the less fortunate and saving sinners through the Save a Life Mission. The Save a Life Mission is loosely based on the Salvation Army. The Salvation Army helps people in need in a variety of ways throughout the year. Finding opportunities to help this organization is a wonderful way for your residents to get involved and make a difference.

Dice Games Dice game are easy to organize and play. For a fun intergenerational activity, invite children to visit and play fun dice games with your residents. Some options include LCR, Yahtzee, and the Cuban game Cubilete.

Virtual New York Most of Guys and Dolls is set in New York City. Take your residents on a virtual tour of New York City. Have your residents share their experiences visiting New York.

Fashion History Revisit some of the men's fashions of the time. Get your residents into the spirit of Guys and Dolls by dressing in the styles. Get creative and have them make their own accessories, such as bow ties and flapper headbands.

Dances Once you have your residents all dressed up, how about some dance lessons? Dancing has always been an important and enjoyable pastime. Try these fun dances with your residents: the Charleston, the Turkey Trot and the Peabody.

Perform a Scene Have your residents pick a scene to perform. Residents may also choose to create a parody of a particular scene to perform. Guys and Dolls

Crafts Use the themes from Guys and Dolls to create unique crafts and decorate your common areas.
