

Mother's Day Humor

Things Mom Taught Me...

My mother taught me LOGIC..."If you fall off that swing and break your neck, you can't go to the store with me."

My mother taught me MEDICINE..."If you don't stop crossing your eyes, they're going to freeze that way."

My mother taught me TO THINK AHEAD..."If you don't pass your spelling test, you'll never get a good job!"

My mother taught me ESP..."Put your sweater on; don't you think that I know when you're cold?"

My mother taught me TO MEET A CHALLENGE..."What were you thinking? Answer me when I talk to you...Don't talk back to me!"

My mother taught me HUMOR..."When that lawn mower cuts off your toes, don't come running to me."

My mother taught me how to BECOME AN ADULT..."If you don't eat your vegetables, you'll never grow up."

My mother taught me about GENETICS..."You are just like your father!"

My mother taught me about my ROOTS..."Do you think you were born in a barn?"

My mother taught me about the WISDOM of AGE..."When you get to be my age, you will understand."

My mother taught me about ANTICIPATION..."Just wait until your father gets home."

My mother taught me about RECEIVING..."You are going to get it when we get home."

And, my all-time favorite - JUSTICE..."One day you'll have kids, and I hope they turn out just like YOU -- then you'll see what it's like!"

For weeks a six-year old boy kept telling his first-grade teacher about the baby brother or sister that was expected at his house.

One day the mother allowed the boy to feel the movements of the unborn child. The six-year old was obviously impressed, but made no comment. Furthermore, he stopped telling his teacher about the impending event.  The teacher finally sat the boy on her lap and said, "Tommy, whatever has become of that baby brother or sister you were expecting at home?"

Tommy burst into tears and confessed, "I think Mommy ate it!"

Mother to daughter advice:

Cook a man a fish and you feed him for a day.

But teach a man to fish and you get rid of him for the whole weekend.

My friend Myron tells me, "Last year on Mother's Day the whole family got together for a big dinner and afterward, when Mom started to clean up, I said to her, "Don't bother with those dishes, Mom. Today is Mother's Day. You can always do them tomorrow."

If it's five o'clock and the children are still alive, I've done my job.

The child had his mother's eyes, his mother's nose, and his mother's mouth. This leaves his mother with a pretty blank expression.

A woman came to ask the doctor if a woman should have children after thirty-five. I said, "Thirty-five children are enough for any woman."

A Sunday school teacher asked her class why Joseph and Mary took Jesus with them to Jerusalem. A small child replied:

"They couldn't get a baby-sitter."

A mother and her young son returned from the grocery shop and began putting away the groceries. The boy opened the box of animal crackers and spread them all over the table. "What are you doing?" his mother asked. "The box says you can't eat them if the seal is broken," the boy explained. "So I'm looking for the seal."

Things you won't hear a mother say:

"How on earth can you see the TV sitting so far back?"

"Just leave all the lights on ... it makes the house look more cheery."

"Go ahead and keep that stray dog, honey. I'll be glad to feed and walk him every day."

"Well, if Timmy's mom says it's OK, that's good enough for me."

"I don't have a tissue with me ... just use your sleeve."

"Don't bother wearing a jacket - the wind-chill is bound to improve."

 While assembling furniture, Mary asked her five-year-old nephew to bring her a screwdriver. "Do you want a 'Daddy' screwdriver or a 'Mommy' screwdriver?" the little boy asked. Confused with the question, Mary said, "Bring me a 'Mommy' screwdriver." The child came back and handed her a butter knife.
