By the time Ted arrived at the football game, the first quarter was almost over.

"Why are you so late?" his friend asked.

"I had to toss a coin to decide between going to church and coming to the game."

"How long could that have taken you?"

"Well, I had to toss it 14 times."

Q: Where do hungry football players eat?

A: The supper bowl.

I hear the three most popular sports in Texas are professional football, college football, and high school football.

The huge college freshman decided to try out for the football team.

"Can you tackle?" asked the coach.

"Watch this," said the freshman, who proceeded to run smack into a telephone pole, shattering it to splinters.

"Wow," said the coach, "I'm impressed. Can you run?"

"Of course I can run," said the freshman.

He was off like a shot, and, in just over nine seconds, he had run a hundred yard dash.

"Great!" enthused the coach.

"But can you pass a football?"

The freshman hesitated for a few seconds. "Well, sir," he said, "If I can swallow it, I can probably pass it."

Q: Why can't the quarterback use the phone anymore?

A: Because he can't find the receiver.

The football coach was asked his secret of evaluating his new recruits.

"Well," he answered, "It's easy. I take them out in the woods and make them run. The ones that run round the trees, I make into running backs. The ones that run straight into the trees, I turn into linemen."

Tom was thrilled to get a ticket for the Super Bowl. The big day came and he took his seat in the stand. After the pre-game show he noticed the seat in front of him was still vacant. Even after the kick-off nobody was sitting there, so he asked the guy next to the empty seat why nobody was sitting there. The guy replied it would have been my wife's seat but she just died."

"Well," said Tom, "why didn't you just bring a friend or relative?"

The guy replied, "Oh, they're all at the funeral."

One football coach's lament is that the toughest problems he's faced in his career almost always involves defensive linemen or offensive alumni.

A football coach walked into the changing room before a game. He looked over to his new signing and said, 'I'm not supposed to let you play since you failed arithmetic, but we need you to be in the team. So, what I have to do is ask you a math question, and if you get it right then you will be allowed to play.'

The player agreed, so coach looked into his eyes intently and asked, 'Okay, now concentrate hard and tell me the answer to this. What is two plus two?' The player thought for a moment and then answered, '4?'

'Did you say 4?' the coach exclaimed, excited that he had got it correct. Suddenly all the other players on the team began shouting..., 'Come on coach, give him another chance!'
